Corporate Cooking Classes

A UNIQUE COOKING EXPERIENCE

Looking for some team bonding in your company? A cooking class is a great way to get people working together in an informal social environment. It aids relaxation, enhances communication skills, is fun and entertaining.

A great way to reward hardworking staff who perform well, or a stimulating way for delegates to finish a day at a conference or seminar. They will dine on the meal they learn to prepare.

A cooking class is an excellent diversional activity to include on your entertainment schedule during a conference, both for delegates and/or spouse. All classes are 3 – 4hrs, with a qualified chef instructing the class.

Hands on participation is encouraged, and our ingredients are always fresh, in season and locally sourced.

We are Mediterranean and Middle Eastern with a difference, food lovers and can cater for all types of cuisine.
